Meeting of the FOX AND WOLF HUNTING CLUB on Sunday, November 21, 1965, at 2611 Gladstone.

Received the following information from Special Investigation Bureau source [REDACTED]

A meeting of the FOX AND WOLF HUNTING CLUB was held in the HENDERSON apartment at 2611 Gladstone at 12:00 noon, on Sunday, November 21, 1965. The following members were present:

MAX HENDERSON
ARGRETTA HENDERSON
VALES CROSSLEY
GENERAL G. BAKER
NOBLE SMITH
MARSHALL WILLIAMS.

GENERAL BAKER chaired the informal meeting. MARSHALL WILLIAMS came to the meeting from Flint and paid $12.00 in back dues. No rifle practice was held, but plans were made to shoot on Sunday, November 28, 1965 at a local range.

GENERAL BAKER and NOBLE SMITH are still working on the basement apartment preparing to move in.

The meeting ended at 1:00 P.M. with the next meeting set for Sunday, November 28, 1965.

BAKER stated that MILTON HENRY defended him in the Flag Hoisting case, and BAKER indicated the case is over.

NOTE: Retrial is still pending and court date is to be set in December by Judge Lavenport.

The meeting ended at 1:00 P.M., and the next meeting is set for Sunday, November 23, 1965; and it is planned to shoot at a range if possible.

From Special Investigation Bureau source [REDACTED] received the following information. Information is the same as source 10/19 with the added information that funds from the clubs treasury will be used to make up any deficit for the NRA charter application. GENERAL BAKER stated he planned to quit Chrysler the first of the year and re-enroll in Wayne State University.
