

'State Of Emergency'

Some 5000 Black and white Detroiters marched past Wayne county jail last Thursday in expression of support for jail prisoners, Attica prison inmates and jailed leaders such as Angela Davis. The march, called by new "State of Emergency" committee, was in direct response to series of killings by members of Police Dept.'s STRESS unit.

EMERGENCY COMMITTEE'S AIM

To Combat All Forms Of Repression