admittance, and was told to walk home. Subject's daughter did not have any money, so she had to stay in the Detroit Memorial Hospital lobby. Subject was taken to jail and fingerprinted and locked up. Subject was harassed and threatened continuously. Sunday morning, (4-17-66) at 8:30 a.m., subject was allowed to make a phone call to his wife and he was told that his daughter had to stay at the Detroit Memorial Hospital until 9:30 p.m. because she did not have any money to call home and was frightened and crying. Her step-mother had to call the hospital information disk to ask if her step-daughter was there. Subject had three of his children's clothes in the cab in a bag and he was refused to have them sent to his home. Subject was accused of being drunk and disorderly. Subject claims that he does not drink and had not been drinking. Subject pleaded not in court to the charge of being drunk but he pleaded guilty to the charge of tickets.
