

Police Injured Subduing Man

James Morrell, 34, 3765 Glynn, arrested last week for reckless driving, drinking involved, found himself in a brush with the law at the 10th Precinct.

Arrested at Fullerton and Lawton, for speeding in a 25 MPH zone, Morrell was taken to the police station. According to Patrolman Mitchell Adamek, the doorman, Morrell refused to submit to a search and assaulted him. He was then subdued. Morrell received a split lip. Adamek was taken to the Henry Ford hospital for treatment for a cut on his right hand. His condition was described as being temporarily serious.

---

Child Found Dead

Eleven-month-old Robert Childs Thorton, son of Mr. Thorton and the late Mrs. Thorton, 819<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> Alpine, was found dead in his crib by his sister Kathleen, 15, at 11:30 a.m. Saturday.

Kathleen stated that she and her father returned home from a wedding the night before, they found the baby crying in his bed, but could not be aroused in the morning.

---